Saga

Fall . . . the trees become a panorama of autumn colors as they change from green to gold and red . . . the quiet halls again come alive with the voices and footsteps of hundreds of students returning . . . the fall semester means football games, the class elections, the Homecoming, Harvest Hop, One-Act Plays, and the Junior Amateur Hour.

Winter . . . a cloak of white lays over the ground creating a wonderland of sparkling snow . . . winter brings the basketball games, Gloria, the Mid-term Mingle, Valentine Ball, and of course, semester examinations.

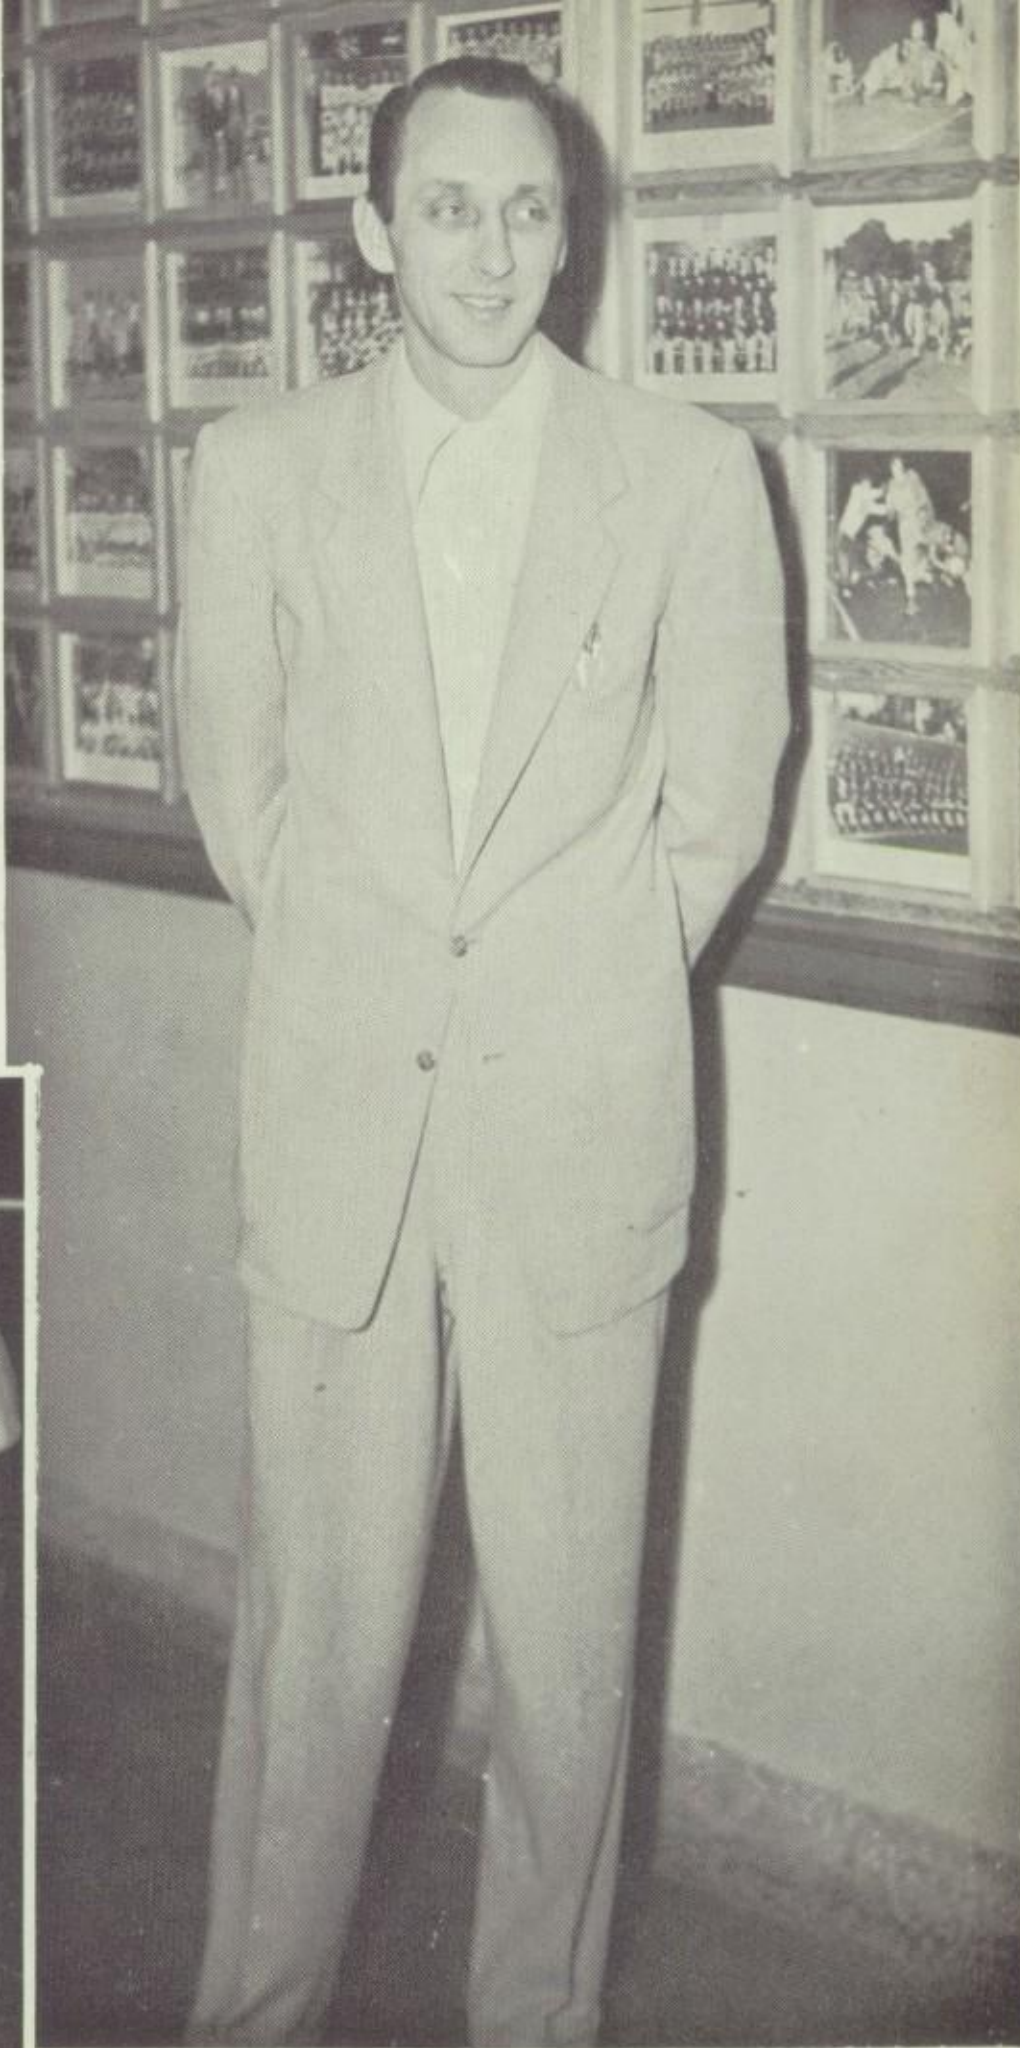

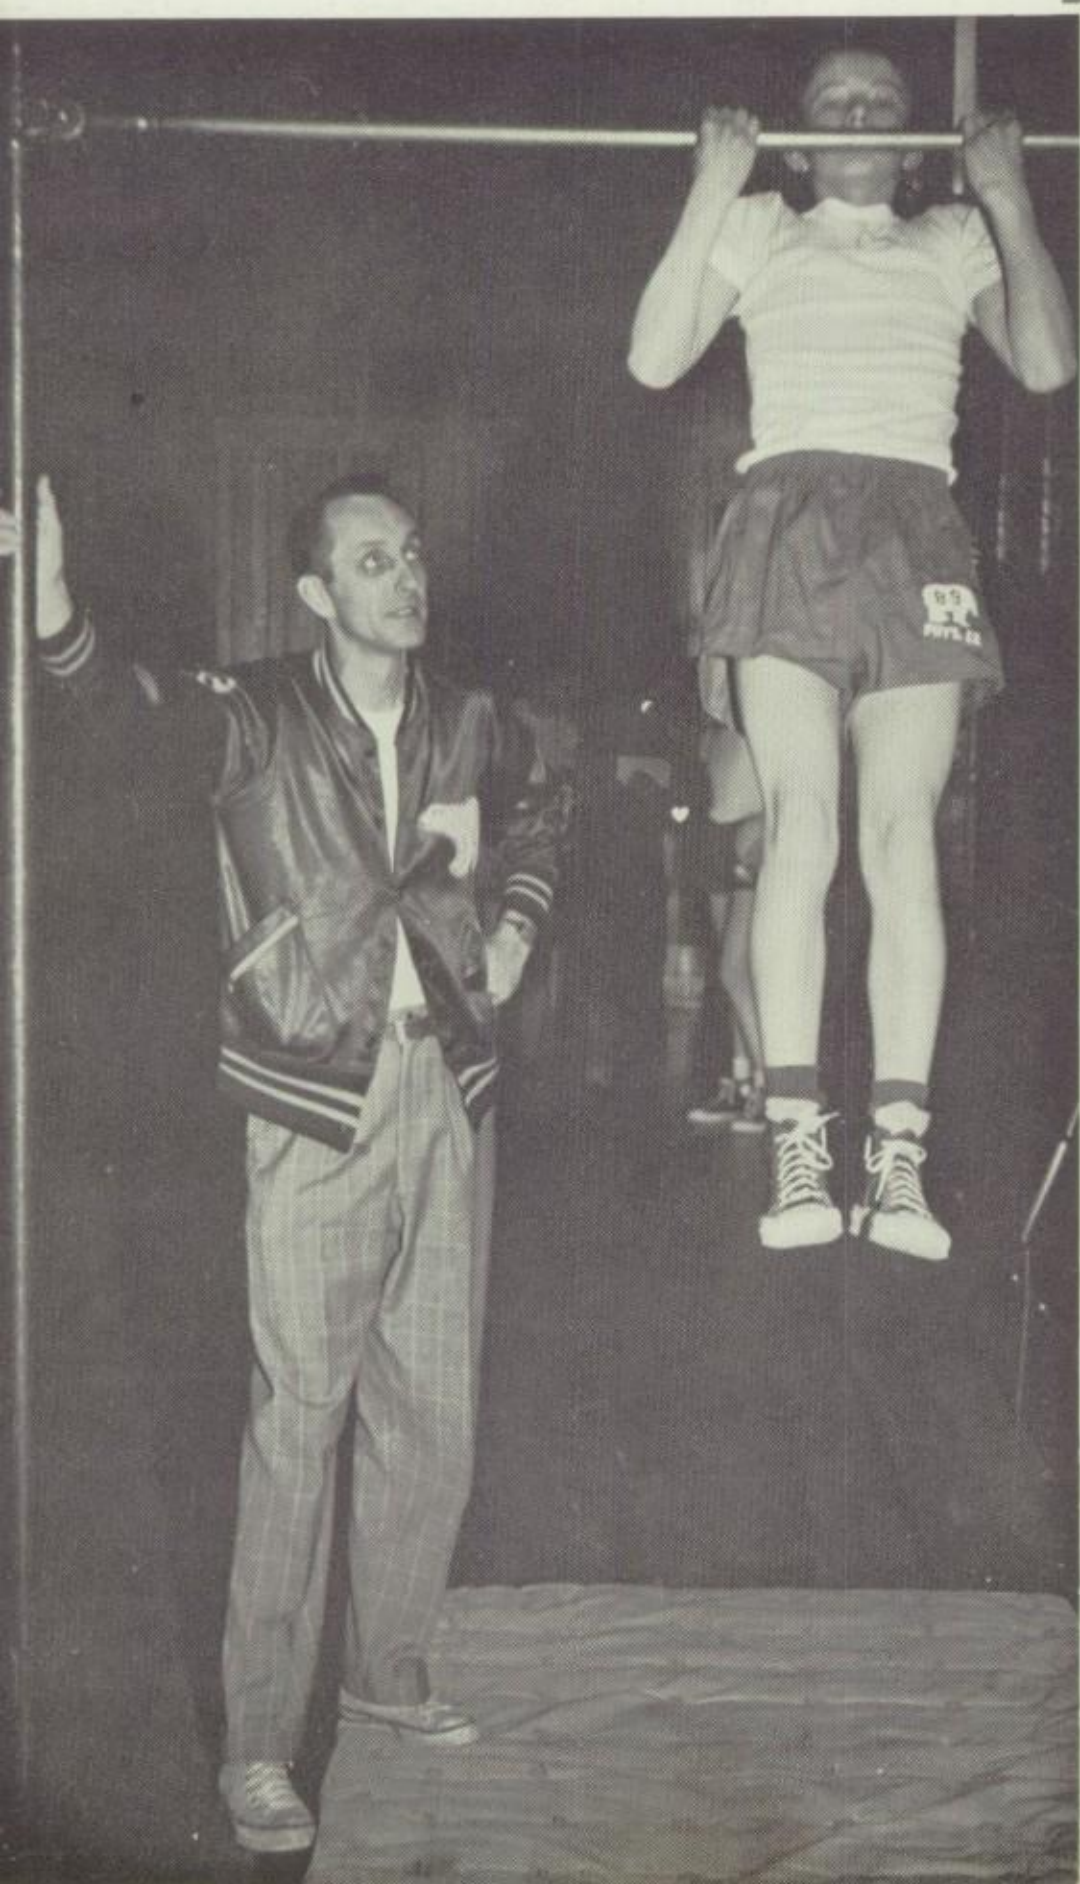

Spring . . . the welcome sun returns and the trees once again show their brilliant green . . . for the seniors it means the end is near . . . spring is highlighted by baseball, track, tennis, and golf; the Senior Play, Junior Revue, Spring Concerts, St. Pat's Prance, Daisy Dip, and the unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom . . . commencement closes the season and the school year . . . it is the end of high school and the beginning of the future for the graduates.

o you, Mr. Powers,

We dedicate the 1954 Saga

During his eleven years of coaching, Mr. Gil Powers has led the athletic teams of Creston enthusiastically and conscientiously; not always to victory, but always teaching them the important things — things which will be remembered far longer than whether they won or lost — the value of co-operation, honor, and respect of opposing players.

A Creston graduate, he returned to his Alma Mater in 1943, as a teacher of Physical Education and head football coach. He was adviser to the "C" Club; at present he is coach of the Freshman Basketball team and assistant track coach. He was the originator of a Junior Basketball League for boys in the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades.

Mr. Powers graduated from Western Michigan College in 1937, where he majored in Physical Education and Social Science.

So, for your friendly attitude and understanding of young people's problems, we are indeed proud to dedicate this 1954 Saga to you —

Parent-Teachers Association

The object of the Parent and Teachers Association is to bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of their child. The theme for the P. T. A. this year is "Better Homes—Better Schools—Better Communities for a Free Society."

The first meeting of the P. T. A. in October was a potluck for the purpose of getting new members. In November the annual open house was held. Next Mr. Lowell McDougal spoke on scholarships.

Seated: Mrs. Wendell Emery, Mrs. Walter E. Shuker, Mrs. Rudolph Bieri, Mrs. Halstead Pullen, Mrs. Fred Valkier, Mrs. William Marcken, Mrs. Frank Briggs. Standing: Mrs. Clifford T. Barnes, Mrs. Fred Slater, Miss Dorothy Lawyer, Mrs. Earl Knutson, Mr. Howard Wickett, Mr. William Welch, Mr. Harold Pendergast.

The P. T. A. gives five scholarships, one to each of the city schools, to be used by a student in the teaching profession during his Junior year. The city-wide Winter Picnic was held at the Civic Auditorium in February. The art classes helped by making decorations. A panel discussion was next on the agenda, and in April a Mathematics Fair was presented by Miss Marjorie Mathew. A tea was held for the parents of new students in May. Besides these regular activities the P. T. A. handles a new and useful clothing department at Junior College, sponsors seventh and eighth grade square dance and has a representative on the Better Films Council, which previews movies coming into Grand Rapids.

Graduates of 1954

On June 10 at Fountain Street Baptist Church, another graduating class will receive their diplomas—the class of '54. These diplomas are symbols of the years that were spent at Creston, the busy but exciting years. As sophomores, they presented the Daisy Dip with the theme centering around May Day. The junior year was one of the busiest, and it included such events as the Harvest Hop, Amateur Hour, and the unforgettable Junior Revue with "Alice In Wonderland" as the theme. That year ended with the memorable Prom which was held in the Pantlind Hotel Ballroom. Then came the last step of the ladder, the senior year which proved to be the most exciting because they were striving for a goal—to present to Creston a Hammond Church Organ. Jay J. Rens with his patient cooperation and class members with their unending enthusiasm promoted such projects as the Mid-term Mingle, Workday, and the Senior Boys vs. Faculty basketball game, in order that their dream might be realized. When the senior play was chosen and cast, everyone in the class knew that there would be hard work to make the play a tremendous success so that the organ could be installed. On March 11 and 12 that's just what happened. "Gramercy Ghost" was a rollicking, hilarious, tremendous success. Many thanks went to Miss Lois Conrad for her magnificent directing. At the end of April, the sound of organ music could be heard throughout the halls. In May the banquet was held at Second Congregational Friendship House. Dress-up Day was the last event of the year. Thoughts, then, turned to college in the fall, or working opportunities. Yes, the seniors of '54 were looking ahead—looking to the future. One can be sure, though, that their years at Creston will be remembered forever.

CLASS COLORS — Blue and White

CLASS MOTTO — The Future is not in the hands of fate, but in ours.

1954 CLASS SONG

Music by Bill Lipke Lyrics by Mike Jackson

Oh, Class of '54 bids fond adieu,
To the maize and blue, all for you, always true,
True to the friend we had,
True to the end,
Of fellowship and fun, and work well done.

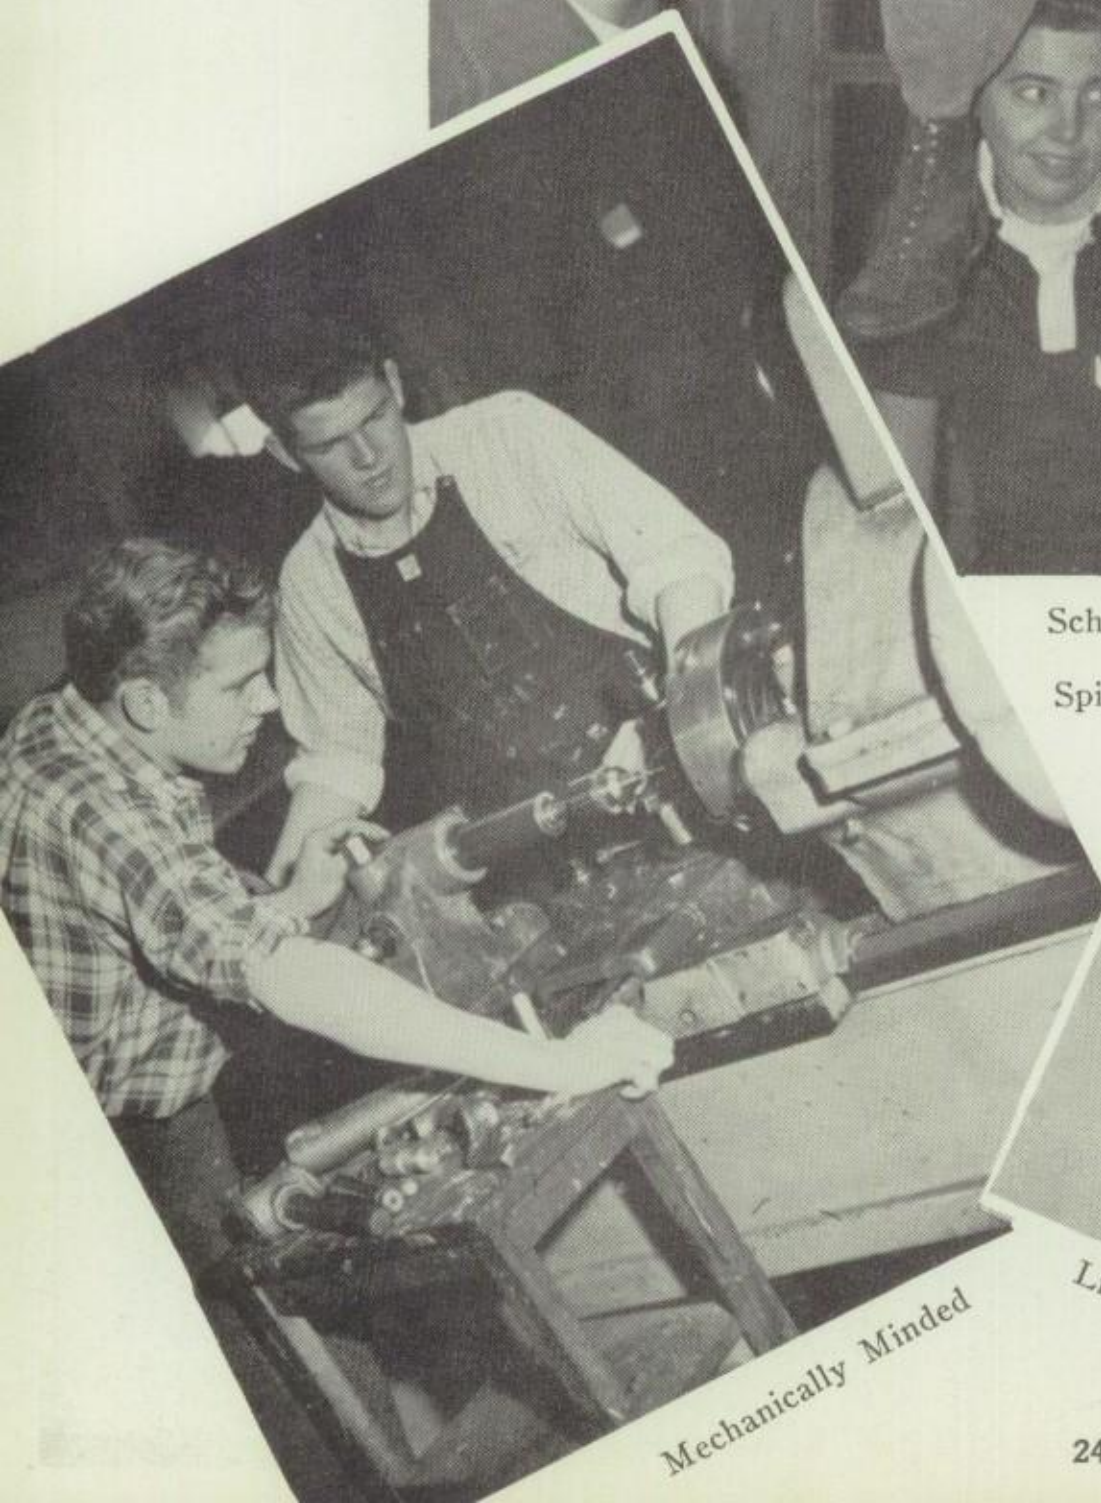

Oh, Class of '54 we'll carry on,
With knowledge gained, our goal attained,
Far beyond.
Far from Creston's halls we may stray,
But thoughts will turn to you some future day.

We hail thee Alma Mater,
We'll always think of you,
Your sons and daughters praise you,
And you will always know,
You'll forever be remembered,
By the Class of '54.

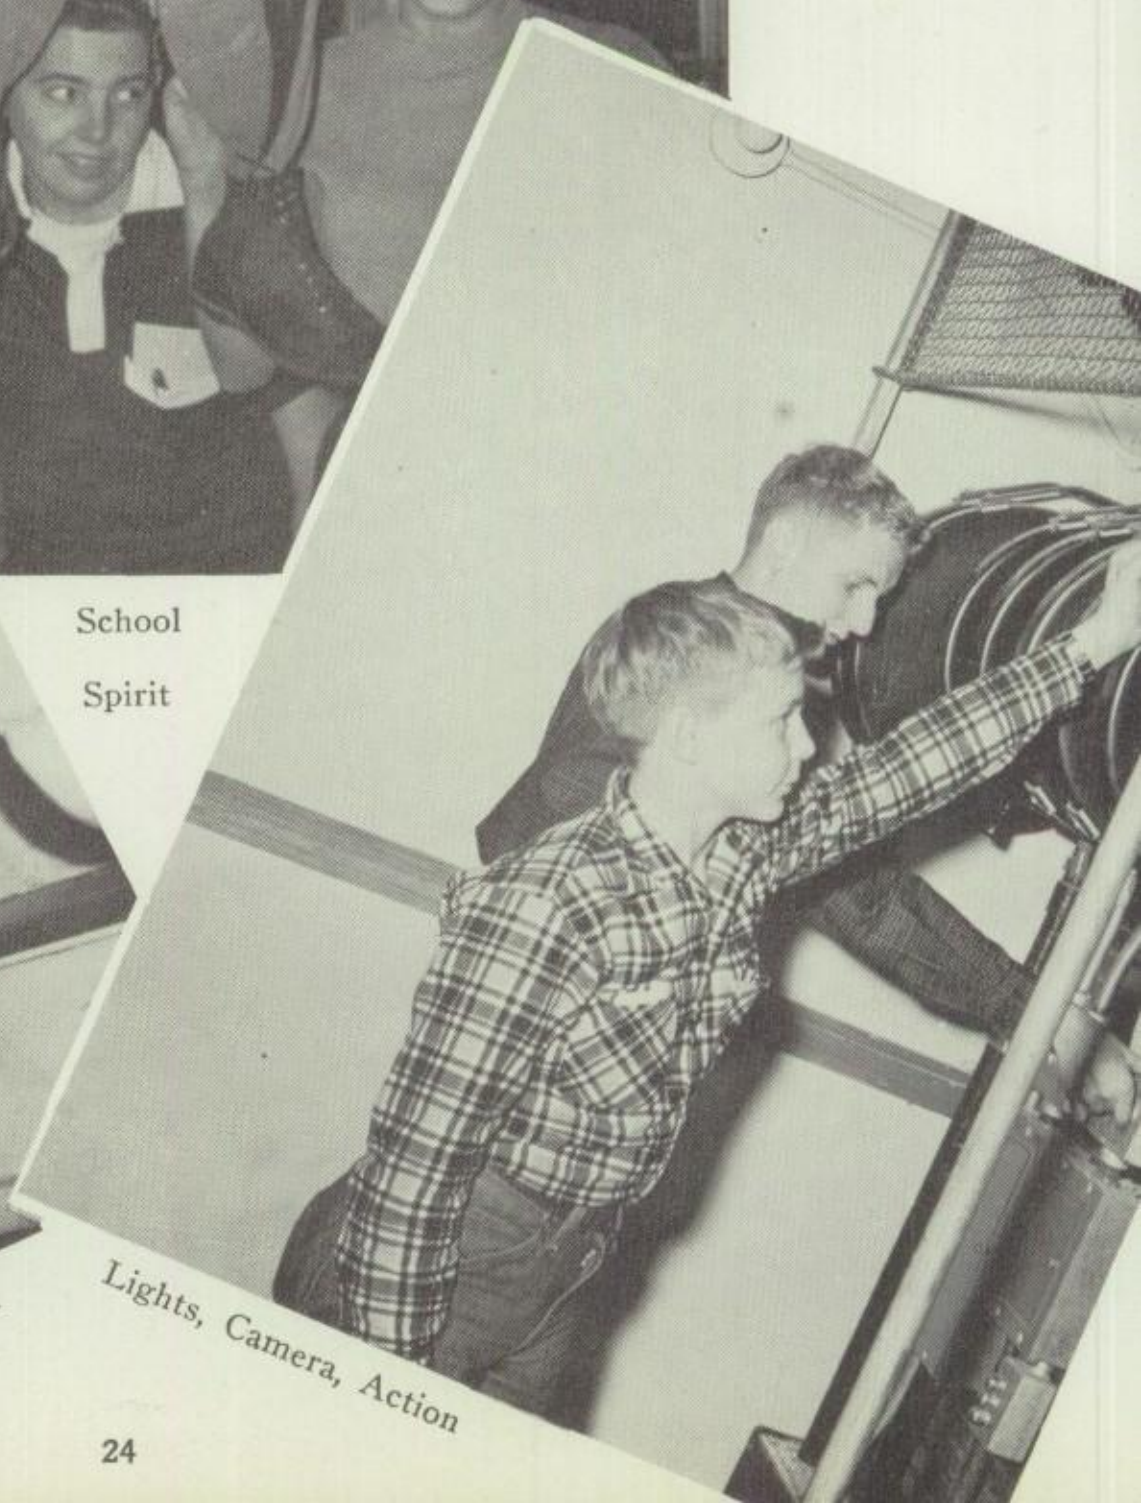

Oh, Class of '54 we'll leave you now,
Some future days, we'll sing the praise,
Of our school.
Thanks for all you've done, and we know,
You'll stand beside us till we reach our goal.

Junior Class

The Junior Class began a busy year by electing four efficient officers. They are: Jim Emery, President; Judy De Vlieger, Vice President; Marilyn Anderberg, Secretary; and Ed Farran, Treasurer.

First on the schedule was the Harvest Hop. Since Thanksgiving came so close to the date of the dance it was a likely theme. A big "Horn of Plenty" decorated the center of the gym.

Unusual talent was displayed in the Junior Amateur Hour. Sarah Drasin and Fred Farran did a nice job as Mistress and Master of Ceremonies.

The highlight of the year was the great success of the Junior Revue. The theme centered around a casting office, and provided a wide scope for variety in numbers.

Jim Emery acted as general manager and Connie West did a bang-up job as dance director with the help of three hard working assistants.

The year of events came to a close with the annual Junior-Senior Prom which was held at the Civic Auditorium.

The Junior Class congratulates Mr. Van Wingen for doing such a terrific job this year in advising the class. They all enjoyed it and will never forget it.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Through Our Student Council We Practice Democracy

Student Council

The Student Council, led by its president Larry Tharp and advisors Miss Lally and Mr. Knutson, was active this year. The major activity was, as has been for the past several years, landscaping the school grounds. This year the plan included the planting of a flower bed of blue and yellow tulips, shaped as a "C". They also adopted a new constitution and sponsored the annual sock dance and the penny carnival.

Other officers were: Vice-President, Bill Dipple; Secretary, Mary Ten Have; and Treasurer, Dick Haken.

The Courtesy Squad seeks to cooperate with the Student Council in carrying out its regulations concerning good citizenship in the halls. Members of the club can be seen at several hall posts every hour of the day helping to maintain order. As a means of punishing those who violate the school rules, a court of discipline is held after school when necessary. After a year's absence due to a tour of Europe, Miss Mary E. Windt has retained her position as director of the Courtesy Squad. Following the plan originated last year the Courtesy Squad is a standing committee of the Student Council. Also the president of the Courtesy Squad is the vice-president of the Student Council. The officers for the past year were: President, Bill Dippel, Vice-President, Roy Franks, Secretary, Beverly De Haan, Student Council Representative, Sarah Drasin.

Audio Visual Club

Audio Visual

The Audio Visual Club performs a very important service to the school in promoting audio visual education. Mrs. Ostrander is the sponsor, and the officers are: President, Larry Vroman; Vice-President, John Barr; Secretary, Harold Gates; Treasurer, Harold Lamach; and Student Council Representative, Don Bowerman.

Besides providing the acoustics for games and dances, other club activities this year have been: Hallowe'en and Christmas parties, a Christmas basket for a needy family, and a picnic in June.

Mr. William Welch Advisor

Ticket Club

Members of the Ticket Club can be seen every hour of the day and before and after school selling tickets for athletic activities and many other events.

Although they sell tickets mainly for athletic events, they also sell tickets for all other activities which makes them a very active and helpful club.

The officers this year are Betty Shireling, president; Marcia Vander Veer, vice-president; and Ruth Anne Whittington, secretary.

Their advisor is Mr. Welch.

Library Club Offers Service

The library club is a service organization of students who volunteer their time to fixing and repairing books that have been misused. They also give their time and help a student looking for books.

They are also an active club. Midway through this year, they had a coffee for the teachers and during the holiday they had a Christmas party. They also participate in school sales and assemblies.

The Echo Puts Out the News

The Echo Staff

The Creston Echo, one of the best school papers in the city, has had another successful year. Through an editorial a policeman was put on Plainfield b Palmer St. This was very much needed for the student safety.

The Echo Staff consists of Janet Fether as editor-in-chief with her assistants Janet Van Wingen managing editor; Frances Kooiman, business manager; Norma Siereveld, advertising manager; and Pat Wesorick, circulation manager. Other editors are Betsy Dennis, Joan Foster, Judy Hoover, Keith De Vries, Lynne De Winter, and Laurel Paasch. The copyreaders are Joan Pennington, Jackie Col and Ellen Corstange.

The Echo Staff is aided by the journalism class which does some of the reporting; the advertising staff, which gets ads for the paper; and the circulation staff, which delivers the papers and takes care of other circulation matters.

The Saga Staff Enjoys Their Work

Seated: Mr. Emery Toogood, Photographers Advisor. Standing: Dan Weller, Photographers Assistant; Ross De Haan, Photographer; Tom Davidson, Photography Assistant.

Sally Glass, Art Editor; Beverly Olson, Editor.

Ruth Anderson, Nancy Keeling, Nancy Lindeman, Faculty Editors.

Saga Staff

The theme selected for the 1954 Saga is "Fall, Winter, and Spring Creston Style." The staff found many possibilities in this theme and so went ahead trying to work it in throughout the book. With an extra large staff, the work seemed to run along smoothly.

The staff started the year off by sending representatives to the Journalism Conference at Michigan State College October 21. There they attended classes which helped them greatly in planning the '54 Saga. One of the things they learned and have tried to put into effect is showing action in pictures. Instead of having club pictures taken in rows, some have been taken in other various ways.

Seated: Miss Rita Lally, Assistant Advisor; Nancy Oom, Special Photographer. Standing: Jayne Foote, Business Manager; Mr. Norman Tock, Advisor.

"HI-Y"

"To create, maintain, and establish throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character" has again been chosen as the pledge of the Hi-Y Club. Members of the club take great pride in their membership and the meetings which are held every Wednesday morning at eight o'clock are regularly attended. Through the past year Mr. Roland Constant has sponsored the club and helped the boys in many activities. The club's annual initiation of new members was held in the gym this year and it proved to be quite an exciting event. Members of the club have been seen selling Paddle Pops at the basketball games as a means of earning money. This money and the club dues were used in projects such as the giving of Thanksgiving baskets. Members of the club also formed a basketball team and entered in the Y.M.C.A. League.

The Senior Honor Society is a chapter of the National Honor's Association. This year it was under the guidance of Miss Cleo Wood, and was an active club. Improvement of scholarship and service to the school are their aims. This year the club again proceeded in their tedious work on the Student Manual.

Membership depends directly on the students scholastic rating and they must be active in some extra curricular activities. New members are announced at the Honors Assembly in the spring. This year a tea was held for the new members.

Orators and Debaters Enjoy a Successful Season

The topic for the debaters this year is "Should the President of the United States be elected by a direct vote of the people?"

To learn the procedures of debate and rational, logical, arguments, the students compete with other schools on a topic. In the inter-city league debating Creston's team came in a three way tie for second. This enabled them to enter the state debates in which they won contests with Holland Christian, Jackson, and Muskegon Hts.

Members of the affirmative team are Janice Geasler and Ethel Altman. On the negative team are Sarah Drasin and Keith De Vries.

Jr.-Y Teens

The purpose of the Creston Jr. Y-Teens is to help girls grow as persons and as members of a Christian World. This club is a part of the Y.W.C.A. It takes part in the teen-age activities, such as banquets, inter-club council and world-wide organization projects. The club was sponsored this year by Miss Croninger and Miss Koch.

The Junior Y-Teens is made up of seventh graders. It takes part in school sales and other activities, and has social meetings and parties within their own group.

Officers busily looking over a paper.

9-Y Teens

The Creston 9 Y-Teens is sponsored by Miss Matthews. The purpose of the club is to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities.

The year opened with a get-acquainted party and a beautiful delight initiation service. During the Christmas season a potluck was held at the Y.W.C.A.

Their main projects for the year were dressing dolls for Santa Claus and a donation to the World Relief Fund of Y.W.C.A. A successful year was ended with the Y-Teen singing banquet.

Officers singing along the way.

Standing: (Judy De Vleiger, Beverly Benedict, Marcia Carlson, Pat Tobin, Judy Simmons) Seated: Donna Swart, Joal Ripstra, Judy Thompson, Donna Ritchie.

One of the many active clubs of Creston is the Senior Y-Teens. Their activities are not only concerned with Creston, but they work in co-operation with the Grand Rapids Y.W.C.A. and international organizations. Among the activities this year were banquets, co-ed dances, state conferences, dolls for Santa Claus Girls and meetings of the inter-club council.

The club is sponsored by Miss Dorothy Bean. Its purpose is to promote Christian fellowship among all people. The theme this year was "I belong, you belong, we belong."

Standing: Fran Vander Zouen, Ruth Hoenke, Marilyn Anderberg, Phyllis Bont, Ruth Anderson, Bonnie Van Valkenburg. Seated: Ruth Visner, Barb Hoenke, Carol Watrous.

Amicitia Club

The Amicitia Club was sponsored this year by Miss Dunham. The club is one of the largest in school and also one of the busiest. The purpose of the club is to encourage friendship between junior and senior girls. They try to develop leadership and social awareness among active members by their many activities.

The club this year was divided into teams; each of which undertook certain activities. The year opened with the initiation which was held after school at John Ball Park. They later had a pep assembly and a potluck. At Thanksgiving and Christmas they helped underprivileged families to have a happy holiday season. Their big event of the year was the formal dance, "The Valentine Ball."

Senior Play

The entire cast

On March 10, 11, and 12 the senior class of 1954 presented "Gramercy Ghost", a comedy by John Cecil Holm.

In the play Nancy Willard, portrayed by Betsy Dennis, inherits an old house and something named Nathaniel Coomber from her deceased landlady, Amelia Bullock. Nancy soon discovers that Nathaniel, characterized by Warren Taylor, is a ghost visible only to herself.

Ron Stuit played a brash, happy-go-lucky reporter and Bill Lipke took the role of Parker Burnett, Nancy's stuffy, humorless fiance.

Others in the cast were Judy Hoover, playing Augusta Ames, a lawyer who brings Mrs. Bullock's will to Nancy; Rhea Raven, as an old family retainer; Beverly Olson and Mary Viergever, two women-ambulance drivers; Jerome Priebe portraying a policeman, and Dave Fleming, Ron Spaeth, and Sally Glass as three other Revolutionary ghosts.

Can you see it like I can?

Waltz of the Flowers

Junior Revue

The Junior Revue of '54 centers around an old lady who wants to change a Broadway theater into a "girdle" factory. The humorous problems as well as the serious add up to an outstanding Revue.

The "Can Can", a Spanish number and a boys' ballet as well as other line dances and specialty numbers help influence the ladies' point of view toward the theater.

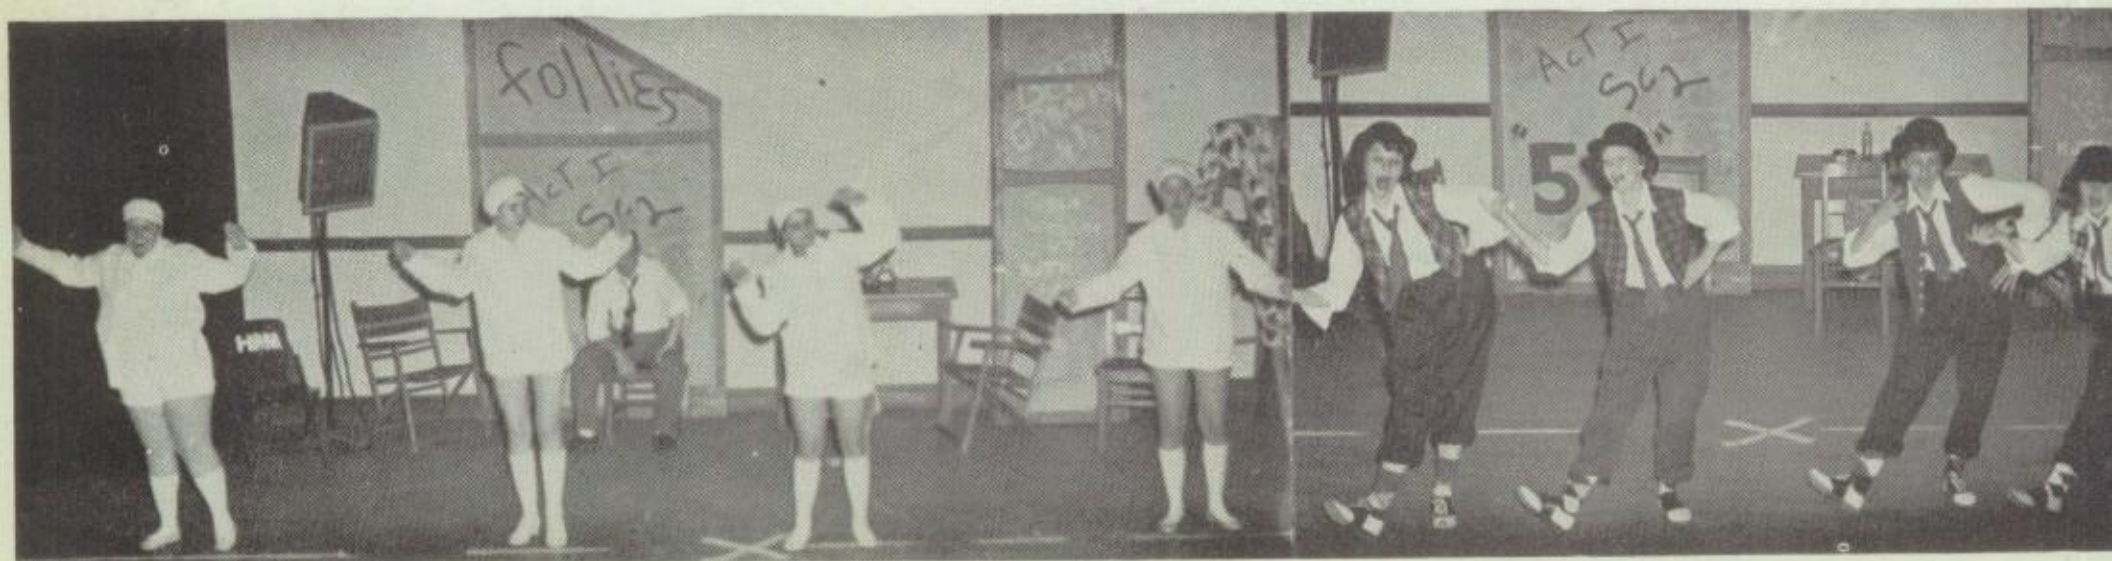

The dances were directed by Miss Connie West, and the continuity was directed by Miss Lois Conrad and Mr. John Rowell. The overall production was supervised by Miss Rita Lally, Mr. Martin VanWingen and Mr. William Welch.

Jerry breaks the record

The cheerleaders have had a very active squad this year. They sponsored a dance after one of the basketball games. They attended a cheerleader clinic and football game at the University of Michigan. It was the first time a clinic was held for students interested in becoming cheerleaders. The girls sold paddle pops, cokes, and took charge of the checkroom for the Basketball Tournament held here at Crest. They hope to send a representative to Cheerleaders Camp this summer.
